

Sr Manager of Facilities, Taco Bell Corp.

PURPOSE OF THE JOB:

Provide one system leadership across all Company and Franchise restaurants for the implementation of multiple national facility modification & equipment programs with an emphasis on effective communication to achieve timely system wide engagement, and influence completion of system wide initiatives

JOB SIZE:

This position will provide leadership for the implementation of multiple large-scale facility modification & equipment programs across 6,400+ Company, Franchise and Licensed domestic Taco Bell restaurants. Projects will range in scope from $10MM - $100MM and completion may span multiple years.

KNOWLEDGE AND SKILL REQUIRED:

EDUCATION:

- Bachelors of Science degree required. Masters degree preferred in project management, construction science, logistics, architecture, or engineering.

EXPERIENCE (and other qualifications):

- 10+ years experience in multi-unit project management, construction, or facility management.
- Requires professional proficiency in Excel, Access, PowerPoint and Microsoft Project.
- Demonstrated track record managing unique and unusually complex projects and problems.
- Requires a proven effective communicator that can consolidate information and facilitate alignment with franchisees and cross functional leaders.
- Candidate must have excellent presentation skills and be highly organized.
- Negotiation, conflict management, and influencing skills are a must.

The Position is based in Irvine California - Relocation is not being offered.

Contact information

Taco Bell Corp.

Maureen Harper

1 Glen Bell Way

Irvine, CA 92618

(949) 863-8124

Maureen.Harper@Tacobell.com